Dear Leecia,

Congratulations on your decision to attend Western Washington University!

You have chosen to join a dynamic community of inspired scholars, open collaborators, environmental thinkers, and globally-minded students and faculty. Your Western education will provide you with many answers, but more importantly, will encourage you to develop questions about the world and your role in it. We encourage you to find and follow your passions and strive to provide you with all the resources you need to be a successful, engaged student. As a university, we gain our inspiration from the energy and creativity of our students, and we are delighted to know you're joining us.

To help prepare for your transition to Western, please review your WWU Admissions Portal at apply.wvu.edu/apply/status. The portal includes a personalized checklist of required and recommended steps related to orientation and advising, on-campus housing, financial aid, registration, and more. It also includes contact information for departments that are here to support you.

Whether you are looking forward to choosing your classes for Fall 2024, making new friends, or meeting your professors, excitement awaits at Western. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to help you navigate your next steps.

You have made an excellent decision in selecting Western Washington University. We look forward to you joining us at Western!

Sincerely,
